STEPS FOR MISDEMEANANTS AND PERSONS AWAITING TRIAL

In North Carolina, being convicted of a misdemeanor does not mean that you lose your right to vote. You can vote while serving your misdemeanor sentence or while awaiting trial for a felony or misdemeanor. Follow the steps below so that you can vote in the next election.

STEP 1: REGISTER TO VOTE

- If you are not already registered to vote, you can register to vote by using a mail-in voter registration form. You can get a form from the Scotland County Board Of Elections Office, Public Library, DMV Office, Political Party Headquarters, or online at www.sboe.state.nc.us.
- On the form, it asks “where you now live.” Use the address of the place where you would live if you were not in jail. This address is the place where you intend to return after imprisonment.
- Mail the completed form to the Scotland County Board of Elections at 231 East Cronly Street. Be sure that you check the boxes stating that you are a U.S. Citizen and you are at least 18 years of age. You will be asked to provide identification by giving your driver’s license number, last four digits of your Social Security number, or your NC ID number. The completed form must include your physical street address so that you can be listed in the proper voting district. If you write a P.O. Box as your street address, the form will not be processed. However, a P.O. Box may be used as your mailing address.
- The Scotland County Board Of Elections must receive your completed form at least 25 days before the election if you wish to vote in that election. Otherwise, you can register at any time to vote in future elections. Voter registration is permanent and you do not need to register for each election.

The Scotland County Board Of Elections will send a card to the address you listed on the form, with the name of your precinct and where you can go to vote (your “polling place”).

STEP 2: VOTE

- If you are able, you can vote in person at your polling place on Election Day or at One-Stop voting (see below). You may also vote using an Absentee Ballot. If you are going to be incarcerated on Election Day, you can vote by mail using an absentee ballot.
- To request an absentee ballot, you may send a signed absentee ballot request form to Scotland County Board Of Elections after you register to vote. Absentee ballots are made available 50 days before a General Election and 30 days before a Municipal Election until 5:00 p.m. on the Tuesday a week prior to an election.
- You can register to vote and request an absentee ballot at the same time. Be sure that your request is mailed early enough to receive, complete, and mail your registration form to Scotland County Board Of Elections to meet the registration deadline (no later than 25 days before elections).
- If the Scotland County Board Of Elections determines that you are eligible to vote, they will mail the registration form and absentee ballot to you. You may be asked to send a document showing your name and address. You may request that the ballot be mailed to any address including the jail where you are incarcerated. Please follow the instructions on the absentee ballot. For example, the absentee ballot must be witnessed by two persons or a notary public; if not, the ballot will not be counted.
- For 17 days starting the 3rd Thursday before each election until the Saturday before each election at 1:00 p.m., voters are allowed to vote by One-Stop absentee ballot in person at the Scotland County Board Of Elections conference room located in the County Annex Building, 231 East Cronly Street. Unless otherwise posted, normal hours for One-Stop voting are Monday—Friday 8:00 am till 5:00 pm and 8:00 am till 1:00 pm the Saturday prior to the election. At One-Stop voting only, a registered voter can vote regardless of their normal assigned precinct.

STEPS FOR FORMER FELONS

If you are convicted of a felony in North Carolina, you temporarily lose your citizenship rights, including your right to vote. Any prior registration you had before your felony conviction is cancelled by the county board of elections with no action on your part. Any attempt to register to vote while you are an active felon is a felony. However, after completing all the terms of your sentence (including parole, probation, and restitution), you do not have to do anything to have your citizenship rights restored. Those rights are automatically restored (N.C. Gen. Stat. 13-1). Registering to vote, again or for the first time, is all you will need to do before voting in the county where you reside after your discharge.

If you have completed all parts of your sentence for a felony conviction or have been pardoned, you are eligible to vote in North Carolina. To avoid potential difficulties with registering and voting, you should ask for your Certificate of Restoration of Forfeited Rights of Citizenship from your releasing officer (N.C. Gen. Stat. 13-2). This is not necessary to register or vote, but may make it easier should you encounter any problems.

In order to vote in North Carolina elections, follow the steps listed below:

STEP 1: REGISTER TO VOTE

- Former convicted felons must register again to vote in your current county of residence.
- You can register by mail using a mail-in voter registration form. You can receive this form by writing or calling The Scotland County Board Of Elections Office (910-277-2595), visiting a Public Library, DMV Office, Political Party Headquarters or downloading a form online at www.sboe.state.nc.us.
